RICHARD J. SULLIVAN
UNITED STATES CIRCUIT JUDGE
Sitting by Designation

July 15, 2024

Dear Honorable Judge Sullivan;

I write to you today in my hopes to convey to you my deepest apologies. It is to you that I hold my strongest regret in the fact that I breached a trust, I should have been smarter in my decision making, beginning with refusing to go to the emergency room or not accepting pain medication prescription. I've always struggled with my addiction and I should have protested harder. But this is all moot now. I would only ask your Honor for his forgiveness and pray that I return home. Also, if possible, can your Honor direct or recommend drug treatment at the time of my sentencing, and/or Mental Health professionals. Thank you for time.

Sincerely,
Richard Marrero
